

Hoped for outcome:

Familiarize yourselves with the basic BIG TEN commandments and why they are important for our relationships with God and one another

1) Rearrange the BIG TEN in the order YOU think is most important?
(You must include them all)

2) In Exodus God continues to remind God's people that "I am the Lord your God, who rescued you from the land of Egypt, the place of your slavery." Why do you think this is important?

3) Share within your OIKOS community a time when you broke one of the BIG 10. Which one was it? and how did you acknowledge your broken boundary with God or your neighbor?

4) Based on the readings for the week:

a) In Exodus 19, the people respond to Moses' sharing of God's speaking in what way?

b) What is the desired outcome of following the BIG 10? What does God promise?

c) Deuteronomy (both 5 and 6) suggest that we apply these commandments to our lives. Why? How does it apply to what you are doing in your OIKOS community?

Readings for this week:

- Exodus 19:1-8
- Exodus 20:1-21
- Deuteronomy 5:1-22
- Deuteronomy 6:4-9

5) Questions regarding the teaching or the readings? Please submit at least 1 question per person, attach their name to each question please. Remember, there are no stupid questions.

6) Practice the BIG 10 in your community. Offer up which commandments you wrestle with each day or maybe one a week. Name it and ask God's forgiveness. If you break a commandment within your own OIKOS, how might you proceed to seek or offer forgiveness to one another? Write down your experiences here.
