

Hoped for outcomes:

- experience worship from the position of giving
- experience worship as a lifestyle

1) Have you ever thought about worship as a lifestyle? As you think about practicing worship, what does it mean for you to lead a lifestyle of worship?

2) Why is worship and giving (adoration, thanks, time, service, and attention) tied together?

3) Share in your OIKOS community, your favorite worship experience or one that has been most meaningful for you. Write down those experiences.

4) Based on the readings for the week:

a) Daniel describes a time of exile. King Nebuchadnezzar makes an idol and Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego refused to bow down and worship this idol, Why?

b) Romans instructs us to offer our lives as a living sacrifice to God. What does this mean for you?

c) What does Jesus mean to worship in 'Spirit and in Truth?'

d) Why do we sing "Holy, Holy, Holy" in worship?

Readings for this week:

Daniel 3:1-12

Romans 12:1-2

John 4:23-24

Revelation 4:8-10

5) Questions regarding the teaching or the readings? Please submit at least 1 question per person, attach their name to each question please. Remember, there are no stupid questions.

6) Practice worship in your home, what does it look like? What elements of worship are present?
